

SYNOPSIS

THE HUSBAND'S WOMAN

After being abandoned by her fiancé, Alberto, who marries her best friend, Cândida now sees her desire for revenge coming true. Verônica, her ex-friend, betrays Alberto, who discovers the betrayal and, after giving a spanking in Verônica, asks for separation. Cândida, on the phone, is happy and order her current husband, Cornélio, for whom she feels a deep contempt, to buy two bottles of wine to celebrate the news.
