

SYNOPSIS

THE THIEF'S INTERROGATORY

Tranquilino is a seller of trinkets at the crossroads, until being arrested, accused of stealing the products he sold. However, when he is arrested, he creates a problem for the justice. Tranquilino has an eight-year-old daughter under his care since his wife died. Now, in jail, he is visited by Cristo, a social worker who will decide who the girl will be with while her father is in prison. To the surprise of Cristo, Tranquilino not only refuses to admit that he is a thief, but also reveals the reasons why he protects his daughter with such obsession.
