

SYNOPSIS

THE HUSBAND'S WHY

The plumber Raimundo Nonato is hired by a very busy judge's wife to solve a leak problem in the kitchen sink of her house. At the moment he is repairing the leak, the plumber is surprised by the unexpected arrival of the judge. The judge knows that his wife had gone to the bakery, so she had left that stranger guy alone in her house. Soon, a tense dialogue begins between the two men, in which the judge, frightened, and increasingly threatening, is discovering what that man means to his wife. Raimundo Nonato is more than just a plumber.
