

SYNOPSIS

VEGETABLE SOUP

Alex is a successful businessman who has an eroding relationship with Fabiana. The affair between the two drags on for years, despite increasing pressure for him to marry her. Until the day Alex hires the executive Tiago and, what seemed to be only a great friendship, turns, for Alex desperation, into passion. However, despite the insistent and direct advances Tiago makes at him, whose speciality is cooking delicious vegetable soups, Alex does not accept what is happening to them. Fabiana's pressure on one side and Tiago's on the other inevitably compels Alex to make his choice.
